

Remember in prayer this week:

Wed., Feb. 10	Those who are beginning their pilgrimage through Lent, that meditating on our Lord's Passion, He may renew their faith in the unshakable truth of divine mercy and grace for all sinners.
Thurs., Feb. 11	Those serving in municipal and state law enforcement who keep our counties, cities, and neighborhoods safe ... and for their loved ones who understand that this calling involves sacrifice and risk. We especially remember the two Harford County Sheriff's deputies who were killed in the line of duty on February 10, Patrick Dailey and Mark Logsdon — and ask our risen Lord to look upon their families and friends with His tender mercy, console them in their grief, and fill them with the peace that passes all understanding.
Fri. Feb. 12	Concordia Preparatory School — students, parents, faculty, staff, coaches, administration, Board, and congregational association — that, as they celebrate 50 years of Lutheran education in the Baltimore area, they continue to pursue academic, artistic, and athletic excellence while giving “all to the glory of God.”
Sat., Feb. 13	Those who are single by circumstance or choice, that they may know they are loved and valued as individuals by their heavenly Father and that they may find joy, peace, and fulfillment in You.
Sun., Feb. 14	Those in this country and throughout the world who have not yet heard and received the glorious Good News: “God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life” (John 3:16).
Mon., Feb. 15	Those who are unemployed and underemployed, that they not only find jobs fitting their skills and abilities but that those jobs pay enough to supply food, clothing, and shelter for their families.
Tues. Feb. 16	Those who suffer from Alzheimer's, that God's presence might sustain them amid their decreasing recognition of what was once familiar ... and that their families, friends, and caregivers draw patience and strength from You — as well as understanding and support from others — so that they can continue to provide assistance for their loved ones even as memory fades away.
Wed., Feb. 17	Those in our lives with whom it is difficult to get along — co-workers, family members, neighbors — that we would be reminded of God's love for us despite our own shortcomings and weaknesses, and that He move us not only to pray for the well-being of those individuals but also to see them from His gracious perspective
Thurs., Feb. 18	Those who work in the restaurant, food and beverage industries, that they might be treated fairly by their employers and their patrons ... and that they might have a renewed sense of serving You by serving others
Fri., Feb. 19	Holy Cross Preschool — students, parents, grandparents, congregation, teachers, aides, and our director Miss Nancie — that among ABC's, numbers, colors, and shapes, Jesus' love always shines through.
Sat., Feb. 20	Those who work for social justice in Baltimore, around our nation, and throughout the world, that — through Your life-giving Spirit — prejudices and suspicions give way to communication and trust so that all people, regardless of ethnicity or economic status, are treated fairly in legal and civic matters.

Wed., Feb.

Those who are grieving the death of loved ones, however long the loss has been, that they may be consoled with the sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life promised by our risen Lord and Savior
